The Gospel Chapel runs a coffee shop each year at the Fraser Coast Show. This year, they donated $1428 to local state school chaplaincy services. Thanks for your support. Chappies Jacqui, Mark, Amanda Waterson and Troy Brady spent some time talking with visitors.

Pictured left are Amanda and Pastor Cameron Madsen holding a signed backpack of support outside the coffee shop.

Jacqui has taught English and English as a Second Language at The Gap SHS and worked in Distance Education at Riverside Christian College. Prior to this she lived in South Africa. She is enjoying her new role, and is at Aldridge on Thursdays and Fridays.

CHAPPY WEEK 18 - 24 MAY

Chappy Week is an annual event run by SU QLD to promote awareness of the value of school chaplains and to raise much-needed supporting revenue.

SCOOPS ON BAZAAR ran a ‘Chappy Hour’ each day between 3.30 and 4.30pm, with proceeds from each sale raised for high school chaplaincy. This totalled approx. $450. Owner Bruce also donated 5 litres of gelati in a lucky draw, won by Sigga Stewart.

The Wednesday hour included entertainment by ASHS student Zac Templeton. It was the busiest it’s ever been for Bruce, with a huge crowd lining up along the sidewalk for their gelato. There’s plans to make next year’s event even bigger! Hope to see you again then.

The LCC is pleased to announce that Chaplain Jacqui du Toit (pictured left with husband Jacques & daughter Joscelyn) commenced at Aldridge SHS on 13th March. Jacqui replaces Kirsten Long, who is on maternity leave. She is a registered teacher and last year worked in a relief/part-time capacity at various schools, whilst in her own time studying towards qualifications in school guidance and counselling.

The Maryborough Ministers’ Fellowship, with Mayor Gerard O’Connell, hosted the annual ‘MCD’ at City Hall on Monday 24th March; a high school chaplaincy fundraising event, sponsored by local businesses. The tables, adorned with masses of flowers, were filled with 300 people who were well fed by hospitality students and entertained by talented arts students.

Guest speaker, M.P. Tim Mander spoke about his interesting past experiences of being a NRL referee and his time as Scripture Union CEO. In praising the value of chaplains, he explained that they not only help students with deeper ‘issues’ but serve many who need encouragement to press on in the face of school life, academic pressures and worries. He stated that chaplains provide a unique service in schools.

Hospitality students served the multitude hot meals in an orderly and efficient way. Staff and students worked tirelessly throughout the day to serve up Summer Chicken, Aussie Bush Roast - and apple pie with ice-cream for dessert!

Maryborough High prefects encouragingly recounted positive tales and support received from their chaplain; and Aldridge Deputy Jackson Dodd, explained that their chaplain is an important part of their school’s welfare team, whilst encouraging school virtues in students.

The audience appreciated the high-standard items by various artists and groups including Aldridge’s Instrumental Ensemble with James Tennant (MSHS), vocalist Zac Templeton, and the Dance Team; as well as Maryborough vocalists Rakel Stewart, Megan Kaufmann, and the Dance Troupe.

Auctions of a beautiful hand-made quilt by Maryborough students, and a fruit and vegetable pack kept the audience on the edge of their seats. Singers Richard Jack, Nicole Stonier, Ngari Jobe and Linus Hoodcamp sang ‘God of this City’, which closed the evening perfectly.

A profit of over $10,000 was raised from the event.

A big thank you to our sponsors: Salt Lighting, Delux Party Hire, Bauple Blooms, Baskin Robbins Ice-Cream, Maryborough RSL, Fraser Coast Regional Council, Fraser Coast Food Service, Fairfield Butchery, Beemart Enterprises, Greg’s IGA, Soar Football Academy and The Food Basket.
